About CVA

CVA was founded in 2016 by James H. Canada, Dan Sills and Jared Peno, who together have formed a highly-qualified and reputable team to assist the nonprofit community. Today, our board consists of professionals from a variety of disciplines including finance, marketing, operations, legal, fundraising and everything inbetween. And the best part is every member of our coalition is highly-vetted, experienced and ready to assist your nonprofit in achieving beyond what you thought your budget would allow.

CVA Mission

To empower nonprofits by enabling leadership, staff, and board members to focus on achieving and exceeding the mission critical goals of our nonprofit partners and clients.

Corporate Partner Program:

Community Value Alliance Corporate Partners recognize the value of maintaining highly qualified non-profits in our community. Empowering nonprofits to recognize the importance of margin and mission, we can affect the community's economic future. Our partners share the belief that nonprofits must aspire to creating a sustainable future to maintain healthy and thriving communities.

Your corporate support will ensure the continued support to our non-profit industry thus touching lives and making a difference.

All corporate donors at the $500 level and above are eligible to participate in our Corporate Partners Program. These donors are given Corporate Partner recognition in all printed materials pursuant to this partnership, inclusion in all partnership news releases, a corporate partnership plaque presented at the Annual Awards Luncheon.
